

MIDTERM ASSIGNMENT

Now that there's been opportunity to consider who you are and how that might relate to your work future, I would like you to commence the process of codifying your findings as Phase 1 of developing your Career Plan.

Put together a report in the format of your choosing (remember that 21st century skill of New Media Literacy – wow, me) on your findings about yourself.

Required Elements:

Your animal from The Animal in You

Your 4 letter profile from Meyer-Briggs testing (Naviance or 16Personalities).

Your weaknesses/least desirable traits and how you can offset them or use them to your advantage.

Three career areas (general like business, medical, arts, etc) you feel fit your personality with attributed supporting statements from the articles (Animal, 16Personalities).

Your full name.
